

Expanding on e-Procurement

Al Jacobs, Vice President & COO, Puridiom

How would you assess your procurement competence? Leading organizations are expanding on their e-procurement investment to address strategic corporate initiatives, bring more spend under management, and increase overall performance. Learn what best-in-class organizations are doing and how they outperform their peers.

Boart Longyear & Puridiom: Optimizing Our Supply Chain

Guest Speaker, Director of Global Strategic Sourcing, Boart Longyear

After deploying Puridiom in 35 countries in seven languages, Boart is entering the optimization phase of their implementation. Learn how, by using supplier rationalization, item analytics and purchase order forensics, Boart plans to further improve spend visibility and achieve greater savings.

Maximizing Performance through Strategic Integrations

Guest Speaker, Vice President & CIO, VSE Corporation

A company's business processes and IT systems can often be seen as a giant jig saw puzzle with key pieces provided by different puzzle makers. It is critical to fit all the pieces together seamlessly so that business processes and IT systems work in harmony to support the company's goals. Successful strategic integration is accomplished by administering, managing, monitoring, and driving IT performance from a unified platform. This session will show why system integration needs to be a part of your overall strategy to maximize the performance and usage of Puridiom to provide a full service system.

Breakout Sessions

- Electronic Invoice Presentment & Payment (EIPP)

Al Jacobs, Vice President & COO, Puridiom

In today's economy, organizations must continuously evaluate their business and identify opportunities to improve performance and create added value. Just as technology has improved and streamlined procurement operations, the accounts payable function is now experiencing the same automation processes, optimizing the financial value of Accounts Payable to an organization. During this session, we will discuss how Puridiom helps AP by using EIPP and Outsourcing to achieve similar results that procurement operations are experiencing.

- Supplier Enablement: Connecting with Suppliers to Build Strategic Relationships

Michelle Jacobs, Director of Corporate Services, Puridiom

Supplier Enablement remains one of the top challenges facing our clients today. The disconnect between the company and its suppliers is causing supply chain disruptions, compliance and accuracy issues, longer order and invoice cycle times, missed saving opportunities, and even hindering the ability to establish new or maintain strong supplier relationships. Learn what best practices, technologies, and services Puridiom provides to help our clients meet these challenges.

Leveraging Supplier Catalogs

Guest Speaker, President & CEO, Heiler Software

The ROI on e-procurement has been long documented, however many organizations fail to receive the full benefit of their procurement systems because of a lack of supplier content. This session will focus on why using catalogs and ensuring proper content is so important in the overall cost effectiveness and efficiency of an organization.

Session Descriptions

Day 2 - Tuesday, September 22, 2009

Managing Capital Projects with Ease

Guest Speaker, Corporate Manager of Facilities, WORLDPAAC

Managing the flow of information and the complexity of multiple capital projects can be overwhelming. You may have myriads of documents related to contracts expenditures and assets. Without completely revamping your organization's current capital requisition process, see how Puridiom's system tables, approval routings and budget module help you to track, capture and manage the flow of information so you are better able to avoid unnecessary expenditures.
